

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Teen Lesson 2: What Makes a Good Friendship?

To test your knowledge and see how much you have learned from this lesson, complete the following sentences using the correct words from the "WORD BANK" on Page 2.

1. Three important qualities are necessary for a good human friendship. These are: _____, _____ and _____.
2. The quality of trust involves being _____, which means that we tell the _____ and keep our _____.
3. We know that God is trustworthy because He cannot _____ and He _____ that He will _____ be there for us.
4. When you like the same things as someone you have _____.
5. A good friend _____ us and is _____ in us. Friends have _____ together and enjoy sharing special _____ and _____ together.
6. _____ is very interested in us. He understands us and _____ us _____ out. If we let Him, He will become the _____ we will _____ have.
7. We show respect to our friends by trying to _____ them and taking care not to _____ or _____ them. We should _____ the friendship that we have with them.
8. God expects us to respect, _____ and _____ Him. To do this we must _____ His _____ and _____ His Way of _____.
9. To build a _____ with God we need to _____ Him, be _____ in Him and _____ Him, but we also need to spend _____ with Him so the friendship can _____.

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE
Teen Lesson 2: What Makes a Good Friendship?

WORD BANK

You will need all of these words to complete the sentences, and some words may be used more than once.

activities

best

common

fear

friendship

God

honour

interested

knows

life

moments

offend

respect

trust

truth

understands

value

always

commands

ever

friend

fun

grow

inside

interests

lie

live

obey

promises

time

trustworthy

understand

upset

word

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Teen Lesson 2: What Makes a Good Friendship?

ANSWERS

1. Three important qualities are necessary for a good human friendship. These are: trust, common interests and respect.
2. The quality of trust involves being trustworthy, which means that we tell the truth and keep our word.
3. We know that God is trustworthy because He cannot lie and He promises that He will always be there for us.
4. When you like the same things as someone you have common interests.
5. A good friend understands us and is interested in us. Friends have fun together and enjoy sharing special moments and activities together.
6. God is very interested in us. He understands us and knows us inside out. If we let Him, He will become the best friend we will ever have.
7. We show respect to our friends by trying to understand them and taking care not to upset or offend them. We should value the friendship that we have with them.
8. God expects us to respect, honour and fear Him. To do this we must obey His commands and live His Way of Life.
9. To build a friendship with God we need to trust Him, be interested in Him and respect Him, but we also need to spend time with Him so the friendship can grow.