

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Teen Lesson 4: In the Beginning

To test your knowledge and see how much you have learned from this lesson, complete the following sentences using the correct words from the "WORD BANK" on Page 2.

1. We learn from the Bible that the Being who became Jesus Christ existed in the beginning with _____. At that time He was known as the _____ (John 1:1).
2. Not only did Christ exist in the _____ with God, but all things were _____ by Him. In fact, He holds everything together. If He didn't, we would cease to exist! Jesus Christ is the _____ behind everything (Colossians 1:15-17).
3. The Being who was the Word, and who became Jesus Christ as a human being, was the same God who _____ to and appeared to men in Old Testament times - the same God who has always dealt with _____ down through the ages. Two of the men who He spoke to were _____ and _____ (Genesis 17:1; Exodus 3:13-14).
4. When the Bible says that no one has _____ God, it is referring to God the _____ - not His Son, who is also God (John 1:18; John 5:37).
5. The Bible tells us that _____ was the Rock that followed the Israelites in the Wilderness (1 Corinthians 10:1-4).
6. It gives us another clue about Christ's life before He became a human being in the story of _____. He was the King of Salem and High Priest, and Abraham _____ to him (Genesis 14:17-20).
7. He didn't have a _____ or a father. He had no genealogy and the Bible says that he will be a priest forever. He was also called the King of _____ and the King of _____ (Hebrews 7:1-3).
8. These are strong indicators that Melchizedek was the God Being who later became _____. He, too, will remain a _____ forever (Hebrews 6:20); He is called the _____ (Isaiah 9:6); and when He returns as King He will judge and make war in _____ (Revelation 19:11).
9. In summary, the _____ who became Jesus Christ existed in the _____ with God. He was the _____ of everything that exists. He was the God of the _____ and He was most probably the _____ called Melchizedek.

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE
Teen Lesson 4: In the Beginning

WORD BANK

You will need all of these words to complete the sentences, plus some words may be used more than once.

Abraham

beginning

Being

Created

Creator

Father

God

good

High Priest

Jesus Christ

man

Melchizedek

Moses

mother

Peace

Old Testament

Priest

Prince of Peace

reality

righteousness

seen talked tithed

Word

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Teen Lesson 4: In the Beginning

ANSWERS

1. We learn from the Bible that the Being who became Jesus Christ existed in the beginning with God. At that time He was known as the Word.
2. Not only did Christ exist in the beginning with God, but all things were created by Him. In fact, He holds everything together - if He didn't, we would cease to exist! Jesus Christ is the reality behind everything.
3. The Being who was the Word, and who became Jesus Christ as a human being, was the same God who talked to and appeared to men in Old Testament times - the same God who has always dealt with man down through the ages. Two of the men who God spoke to were Abraham and Moses.
4. When the Bible says that no one has seen God, it is referring to God the Father - not His Son, who is also God!
5. The Bible tells us that Jesus Christ was the Rock that followed the Israelites in the Wilderness.
6. It gives us another clue about Christ's life before He became a human being in the story of Melchizedek. He was the King of Salem and High Priest, and Abraham tithed to him.
7. He didn't have a mother or a father. He had no genealogy and the Bible says that he will be a priest forever. He was also called the King of Peace and the King of Righteousness.
8. These are strong indicators that Melchizedek was the God Being who later became Jesus Christ. He, too, will remain a priest forever. He is called the Prince of Peace and when He returns as King He will judge and make war in righteousness.
9. In summary, the Being who became Jesus Christ existed in the beginning with God. He was the Creator of everything that exists. He was the God of the Old Testament and He was most probably the High Priest called Melchizedek.